Dear friend -

my delay in writing has been due to illness, research here & just plain neglect. Hope I haven't missed your trip to N.Y. I am very concerned about extending my ancestry beyond Elias Hart B. abt 1804 prob. Kingston Canada 1 ch. B. cal. & Ohio D. 18 mar 1846 Ohio. From vital stat. Bior, Encey etc, it would appear that some Harts came from Eng, to Conn. to Ohio into Canada & back to N.Y., keep in mind, Stephen, Daniel B. Emily, Charles, as relatives of Elias (my common ancestor)

I am a gr. granddaughter of Elias Hart. ^{family} Records show that he was born in Canada, but we have recently obtained a death certificate of his oldest son Nathan stating that he was (Elias) born in New York.

Inclosed is all we have recorded about this man, and we are so anxious to locate his parents & connect him with the proper Hart ancestry of which seem to come principally from England. In the 15th & 16th many Harts are early settlers in Mass. Conn. Vermont. States in Eastern U.S.A. from late 1600 to 1800 AD.

He most likely was married in or near Kingston, Ontario Canada. Is there a possibility of connecting this family with any of the records you have at the present time?

I have in my possession your letter of (28 June 1969) written to my Researcher Jennie Muecke, S.L.C. Utah 84111. She was on the trail of a number of good leads one of which is your letter.

Meantime several months ago my husband's health failed (age 60) & I have been forced (financially) to dispense with sister visits & services, except as a friendly advisor.

Your letter & interest is so much appreciated.

Your mention of Cornelia Staker (Stalker) in your letter seems that you are familiar with this line - here is what we have -

Name	Birth	Death
Cornelia Staker	9 June 1810 Kingston, Can.	6 July 1850 Missouri
Father Conrad Staker	4 June 1768 Hesse Kassel ^{Prussia} Germany
Nathan Staker	abt. 1740

You spoke of the possibility of a will, & searching land records in Loughborough, at the Registry office in Kingston, 18 mi distance. If you will do this I will be glad to finance it. please let me know how much it will be.

Yours anxiously

Dear Mr. Grundy:

In Reference I found the name, Barney Hart, in the U.E.L. Centennial volume, who may have been an ancestor of Elias Hart, being searched by The Genealogical Researchers. With advice from Ian Wilson, Archives, and Col. Flynn I phoned Dr. Burleigh who was interested and knew about earlier searching for ancestors of this family. He has records there on the distaff side of the family, and thinks he could follow through and perhaps obtain information from the registry office. I begged him to take over the inquiry saying I would ask you to forward the cheque to him with your comments. If his efforts at the Registry Office, and, or, a trip to a cemetery involve further time and effort he is prepared to tell them his estimate of the charges.

I hope you will agree that this approach to the research is the best.

Sincerely,
